

Application for Assistantship

Please complete if you are seeking a graduate assistantship AND you have been admitted. A graduate assistant works with a faculty member or research scientist in academic class instruction or critical support in research endeavors. A graduate assistantship is a paid university position and helps defray the cost of a graduate education. Assistantships are highly competitive. Please note, your department may have an additional application to complete for an assistantship.

Today's Date

Program

Name

Street Address

City, State or Country, Zip/Postal Code

Telephone with Area/Country Code

Country of Citizenship

Last Degree Received

Year of Degree

Major

Institution

Undergraduate GPA

GMAT/GRE or MAT Test Score

I prefer a  Teaching Assistantship

Research Assistantship

Describe your experience, skills and research interest. Also attach a résumé.

Department: If you have an additional/alternative assistantship application, please notify the student.