UAH College of Business celebrates 30th year of re-accreditation with ribbon cutting and open house

What: The University of Alabama in Huntsville (UAH) College of Business recently received another five-year extension of its accreditation from the prestigious Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), marking the 30th consecutive year that the college has earned this distinction. To celebrate, the college will host local government officials and Huntsville/Madison County business leaders as they cut a ribbon to unveil a new installation recognizing this mark of excellence.

When: Tuesday, March 26, 2024 at 11 a.m.

Interview Opportunity: College dean, Dr. Jason T. Greene, will be available for interviews from 11 - 11:45 a.m.

Where: UAH Business Administration Building - Click here for GoogleMaps directions.

Why This Matters: More than 30 years ago, Huntsville business leaders came together to advocate for a high-quality accredited business school to meet the needs of the Huntsville community. Today, the UAH College of Business continues to provide a high-quality business education to Huntsville/Madison County and beyond, contributing to our community's talented professional workforce.

Additional Information: Parking is open and available directly in front of the UAH Business Administration Building.
